From the Senior Class of 1960

We, the class of 1960, remember the years at Ross High School of being alternately confused, encouraged, depressed, and confident.

We remember tense moments of studying for tests and the suspense of waiting for the results.

We remember learning to know and like our classmates and teachers and more important learning to like ourselves.

We remember changing from the old cherished building to the very new and modern high school in our junior year.

We remember the honor study halls which were originated by Student Council in our senior year.

We will always remember the wonderful people at Ross Senior High who worked with us and for us to help us attain our goal—graduation.

We will remember—and honor—Ross High forever.

IN MEMORY OF

HOWARD A. COCHRAN

Counselor, Teacher, and Friend

Administration

BOARD OF EDUCATION

These are the men who through their co-operation with the faculty, have made our school possible. The new school, modern equipment, and a competent staff are due to their efforts. We want them to know that all they've done has been appreciated.

Gustorf Secretaries

ALLEN E. RUPP

Superintendent

To a sincere and dedicated man who has done much to further education in Fremont, we wish to express our appreciation for all the good he has done for our school.

MR. CLARENCE R. COOPER

Senior High Principal

With the help and guidance of Mr. Cooper we have always set our goals high and tried our best to attain them. Through his confidence and encouragement Ross High School has achieved the many ideals of which we are so proud.

MR. RANDALL H. MILLER

Senior High Assistant Principal

A sincere desire to help each student whenever possible has gained Mr. Miller the respect and admiration of the student body of Ross High School. We deeply appreciate his patience and unlimited effort to promote the welfare of each and every one of us.

HUGH WHITTINGTON

Director of Instruction

Mr. Whittington is a new member of the Administration this year. His primary duty is to confer with the faculty on problems of curriculum and instruction.

MR. ROBERT SEELE

Junior High Principal

Making school an important and desirable part of the life of junior high students is one of the chief aims of Mr. Seele. It has been his steady interest in the welfare of the students that has kept both students and teachers working harmoniously.

MR. PAUL RAINES

Assistant Junior High Principal

Mr. Raines, as assistant principal, performs various administrative tasks. His friendly voice and smile have made him many friends throughout the school. All junior high students wish to thank him for doing a splendid job this year.

MISS THELMA HUGHES

Visiting Teacher

Miss Hughes, our visiting teacher, checks on attendance and is especially interested in bringing the pupil and the school together. Senior and junior high students wish to thank her, for through her advice and counseling, we have gained much.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

Words by Sheron Keiser

Tune: The Church Is One Foundation

The time has come for parting
For graduation's here.
We say good-bye forever—
The school we hold so dear.
For memories, O so precious,
For lessons we have learned.
We thank you all sincerely,
Our gratitude you've earned.

This is the consummation
Of years of toil and fun.
Yet life is still before us,
Our task is just begun—
For we go forth to conquer,
To build the world anew.
Our shield—the truth and wisdom
That we have gained through you.

Now as we pass before you
And breathe our last farewell,
We leave this thought to keep you—
That in these halls may dwell:
A spirit bright and glowing,
An air of victory know,
For here you learn to conquer
Whatever be the foe.

The minutes now are fleeting,
Soon through the doors we'll pass,
To meet life's mighty challenge,
Our separate dies to cast.
And as the curtain closes
Our hearts in memories dwell
We sing in joy, yet sadness—
"Farewell, dear Ross! Farewell!"

Senior High Activities

SENIOR HIGH BAND

Jon Hower President

Judy Hague Secretary-Treasurer

Combined concerts with the Cleveland Heights Band in February, and the Ohio State University Band in March were the highlights of the Ross Band this year. Playing with these bands was a great privilege and thrill to the directors and the members.

The band also participated in the district and state contests. Besides all this, they also presented concerts for the student body; and in the spring they presented a concert with the A Cappella Choir.

Also, during the fall the band spent many hours on the football field preparing their unusual routines for the fans.

This year the Ross High Dance Band consisting of thirteen members was reactivated. They have played and will play in the future for dances sponsored by school and other local organizations.

The a cappella choir, largest in the history of the school, was in good voice this year. At Christmas time they gave the annual school assembly, a formal concert, and the concert at Birchard library. The Buckeye Conference Choir Festival was held in April and a combined band and choir concert in May. To finish the year the choir sang for the Baccalaureate Service. Throughout the year individual ensemble groups sang for various social gatherings.

All together now, one, two, three!

A new speech coach and a new debate coach helped draw more interest to this already active club. The mystery voice and the magazine assembly started off a speech year full of activities.

Student Congress, novice debate tourneys, and a Prince of Peace warm-up were the first contest events. Successive Prince of Peace contests yielded the state winner, a Ross N.F.L. boy. Numerous other individual events, tournaments, and debate contests readied the members for Little District Tournament at Bowling Green and N.F.L. District at Wooster, which led finally to the State Tournament at Columbus.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"The Diary of Anne Frank"

Few times, if ever, in the history of high school productions has a cast taken on the job Ross High's seniors did in choosing "The Diary" for their class play. And even more praiseworthy was the excellent job these students did in portraying the characters under the expert direction of Miss Forsyth. The drama was presented four nights to capacity crowds.

Many hours of practice and stage work were put in by the cast and an excellent staff to produce a play of which the whole school and community should be proud.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

Advisor—Miss Forsyth

What are you pointing at, Sandy?

The winning one act play.

Twelve new senior members and about 35 juniors were added to National Thespians this year. The club studied staging and acting technique and supported both class plays.

During the year the senior members worked up six one-act plays which they presented in the Little Theatre during dramatics class. The best play, actor and actress were chosen from these presentations.

The junior members worked on one-act plays after the presentation of their class play.

Deadlines, deadlines, gotta' meet the deadline! Well, they did it! The pictures have been taken, proportions figured, pages pasted down, articles written, sections arranged, subscriptions taken and finally the annuals have been passed out.

Work started at the beginning of the year and set a frantic pace for the staff. But they came through in fine style to present you with this annual.

This is your life, Christy?

Ah! another page is finally done.

STUDENT

This looks like Christmas time.

The Student Council accomplished much this year and added greatly to the whole school. They again supported the Bookstore which added new services to the student body, such as selling decorations, corsages, and shakers. During football season they chartered busses to out-of-town games for the students and held a bon fire rally. At Christmas time the organization encouraged decorations in the school and gave corsages to the teachers.

New books, student hobbies, and art exhibits were featured display projects sponsored by the Ross Library Staff this year. The club members efficiently carried out the many duties required to keep the library running smoothly, such as repairing books, typing library cards, and . . . oh yes, collecting fines for overdue books. Highlighting the year's activities were faculty teas and the Northwestern Ohio Student Librarians' Convention held at Ross in November.

BIOLOGY CLUB

That's something to think about!

One of the largest and most active clubs in the school, Biology Club, maintained that honor again this year. The purpose of the club, to encourage interest and advancement in biological science, was carried out by holding bi-monthly meetings featuring lectures, movies, and project reports.

The group took many interesting and fun-filled field trips to such places as Cleveland, Columbus, and of course, the Lake Erie boat trip. Some of the more prominent members entered projects in the County Science Day Contest.

Other, not soon forgotten, activities of this club, were the Caterpillar Crawl, and the Christmas party. Also memorable was the joint meeting with the Gibsonburg Biology Club.

Romans flourished at Ross this year. Everyone noted with surprise the students who sported wreaths at school one day. These were J.C.L. initiates. The club had a large membership this year and good attendance at the monthly meetings.

A new constitution was drawn up and copies were passed out to all members. Topics on Classical subjects were presented at the meetings; one meeting featured a full length movie.

Latin week was held in April and Latin projects were displayed in the school.

The big event of the year, as always, was the annual Latin Banquet at which only those in Roman attire are allowed. Everyone goes Roman, the teachers, students, and of course, the food is served in Roman style by pretty Roman slaves.

An Art Club Magazine was the big project for the creative club at Ross. Each member planned and illustrated at least two pages of the magazine. A committee to take care of posters, programs and other project requests from various organizations in the school was formed this year.

Trips to Bowling Green and Toledo University Art Classes to observe were both fun and informative. The club also toured Toledo Art Museum during the Libbey Owens Glass display.

This active club was also responsible for decorating the school and the Birchard Library windows at Christmas. They also sponsored the art exhibit of the Phi Delta Fraternity, an honorary art society at Bowling Green.

At Christmas this club made a large pinata in the form of a purple-people-eater filled with candies and toys in keeping with the Mexican customs.

In February the club held a Spanish banquet with the first year Spanish Club. The president of Spanish II gave the welcome. A four course meal of Spanish foods was served to the "Spaniards-for-a-night."

The Visual Aids group, under the direction of Mr. Hille, at senior high, and Mr. Smith, at junior high, take care of the ordering, showing, and sending back of films ordered by the faculty. Not only do they show movies, but the group sets up the Little Theater and gymnasium with microphones and sound for meetings, concerts, and assemblies.

Hi, ya big boy!

Oops . . . I think I lost something!!

Junior bird watchers.

Typical late movie commercial.

Watch the hand!

Which way did he go!

Oooo . . . it's cold.

This grass needs mowing.

Here's too ya.

Mommie, how do you like my new dress?

Hors-d'oeuvres, anyone?

I must say, I wasn't expecting company!

Wow, what he-men!!

What a cute chick!

All right, start running.

Togetherness

Happy New Year!!!

Gidde up horsey.

That's it, smile.

What a face!

I use Pepsodent.

Ah . . . the end of another day!

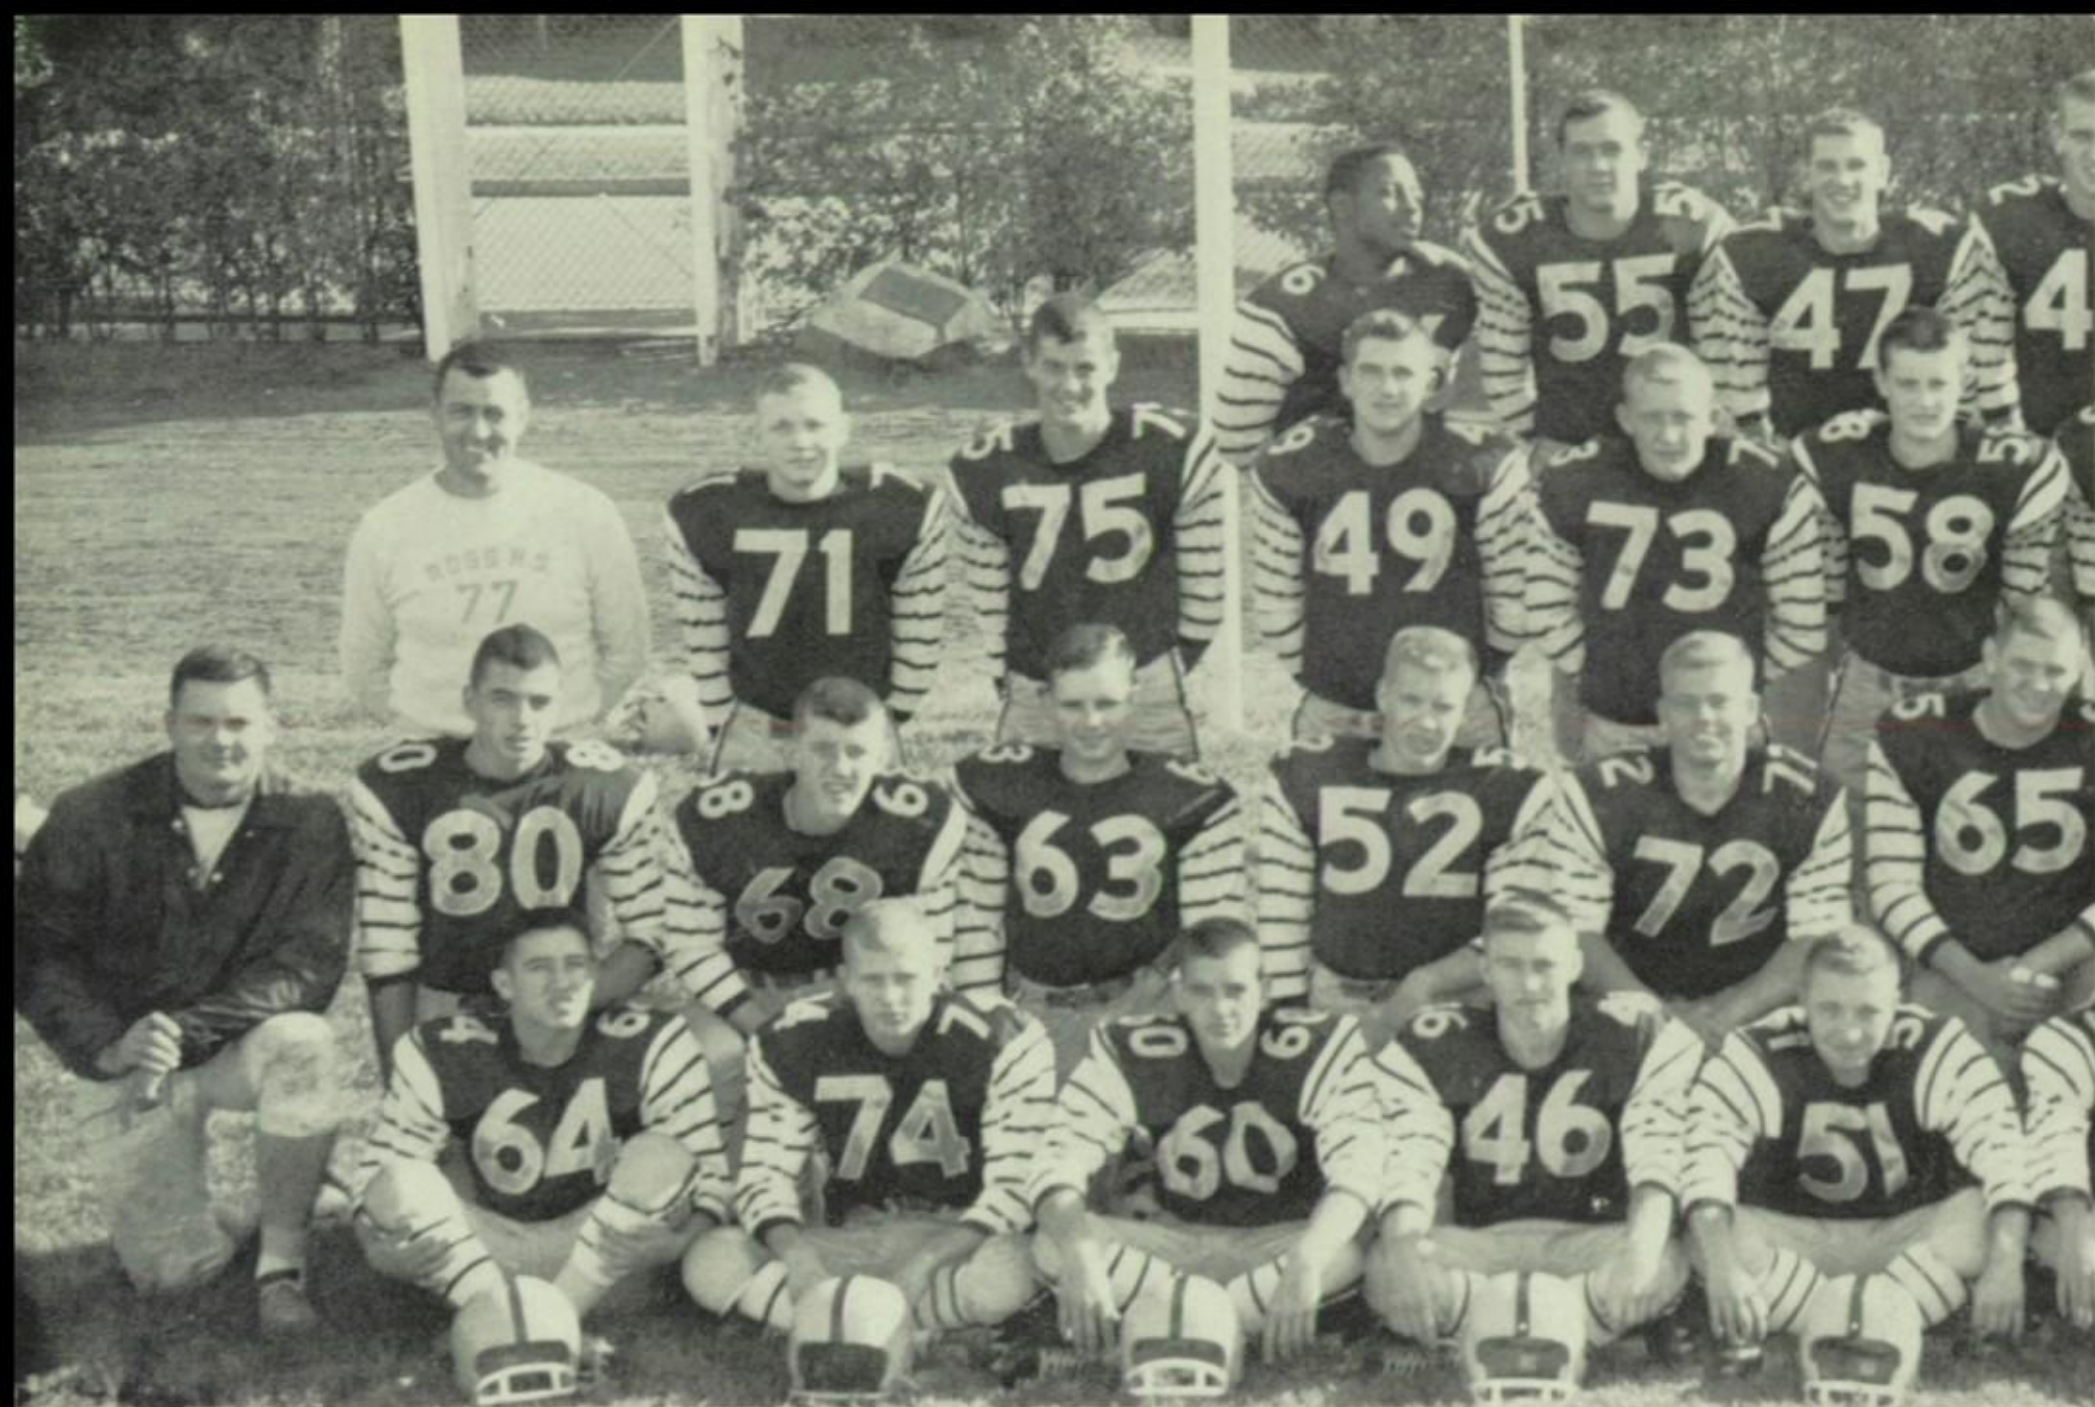

Watch the birdie!!

VARSITY

WADSWORTH

A highly spirited Wadsworth team nipped the Fremont Ross Little Giants 14-12 on September 18 at Fremont.

Wadsworth led early in the game 6-0, but Jim Ohms knotted the score 6-6 at the half. In the second half Nighswander added six points, but Wadsworth got a touchdown and two extra points giving them the victory.

FOSTORIA

The Purple and White gained their first victory of the season 22-12 on October 2 at Fostoria.

In the first half the teams exchanged touchdowns for a 6-6 tie. Ohms started the rest of the game by adding two six pointers to the Ross total. This was enough for the victory.

FINDLAY

Victory was followed by defeat as the Little Giants bowed to the Findlay Trojans in their first Buckeye Conference test 29-6 on October 9 at the home field.

Only bright spot in the game for Ross was a 53 yard pass play from Stine to Nitschke followed by a touchdown.

WAITE

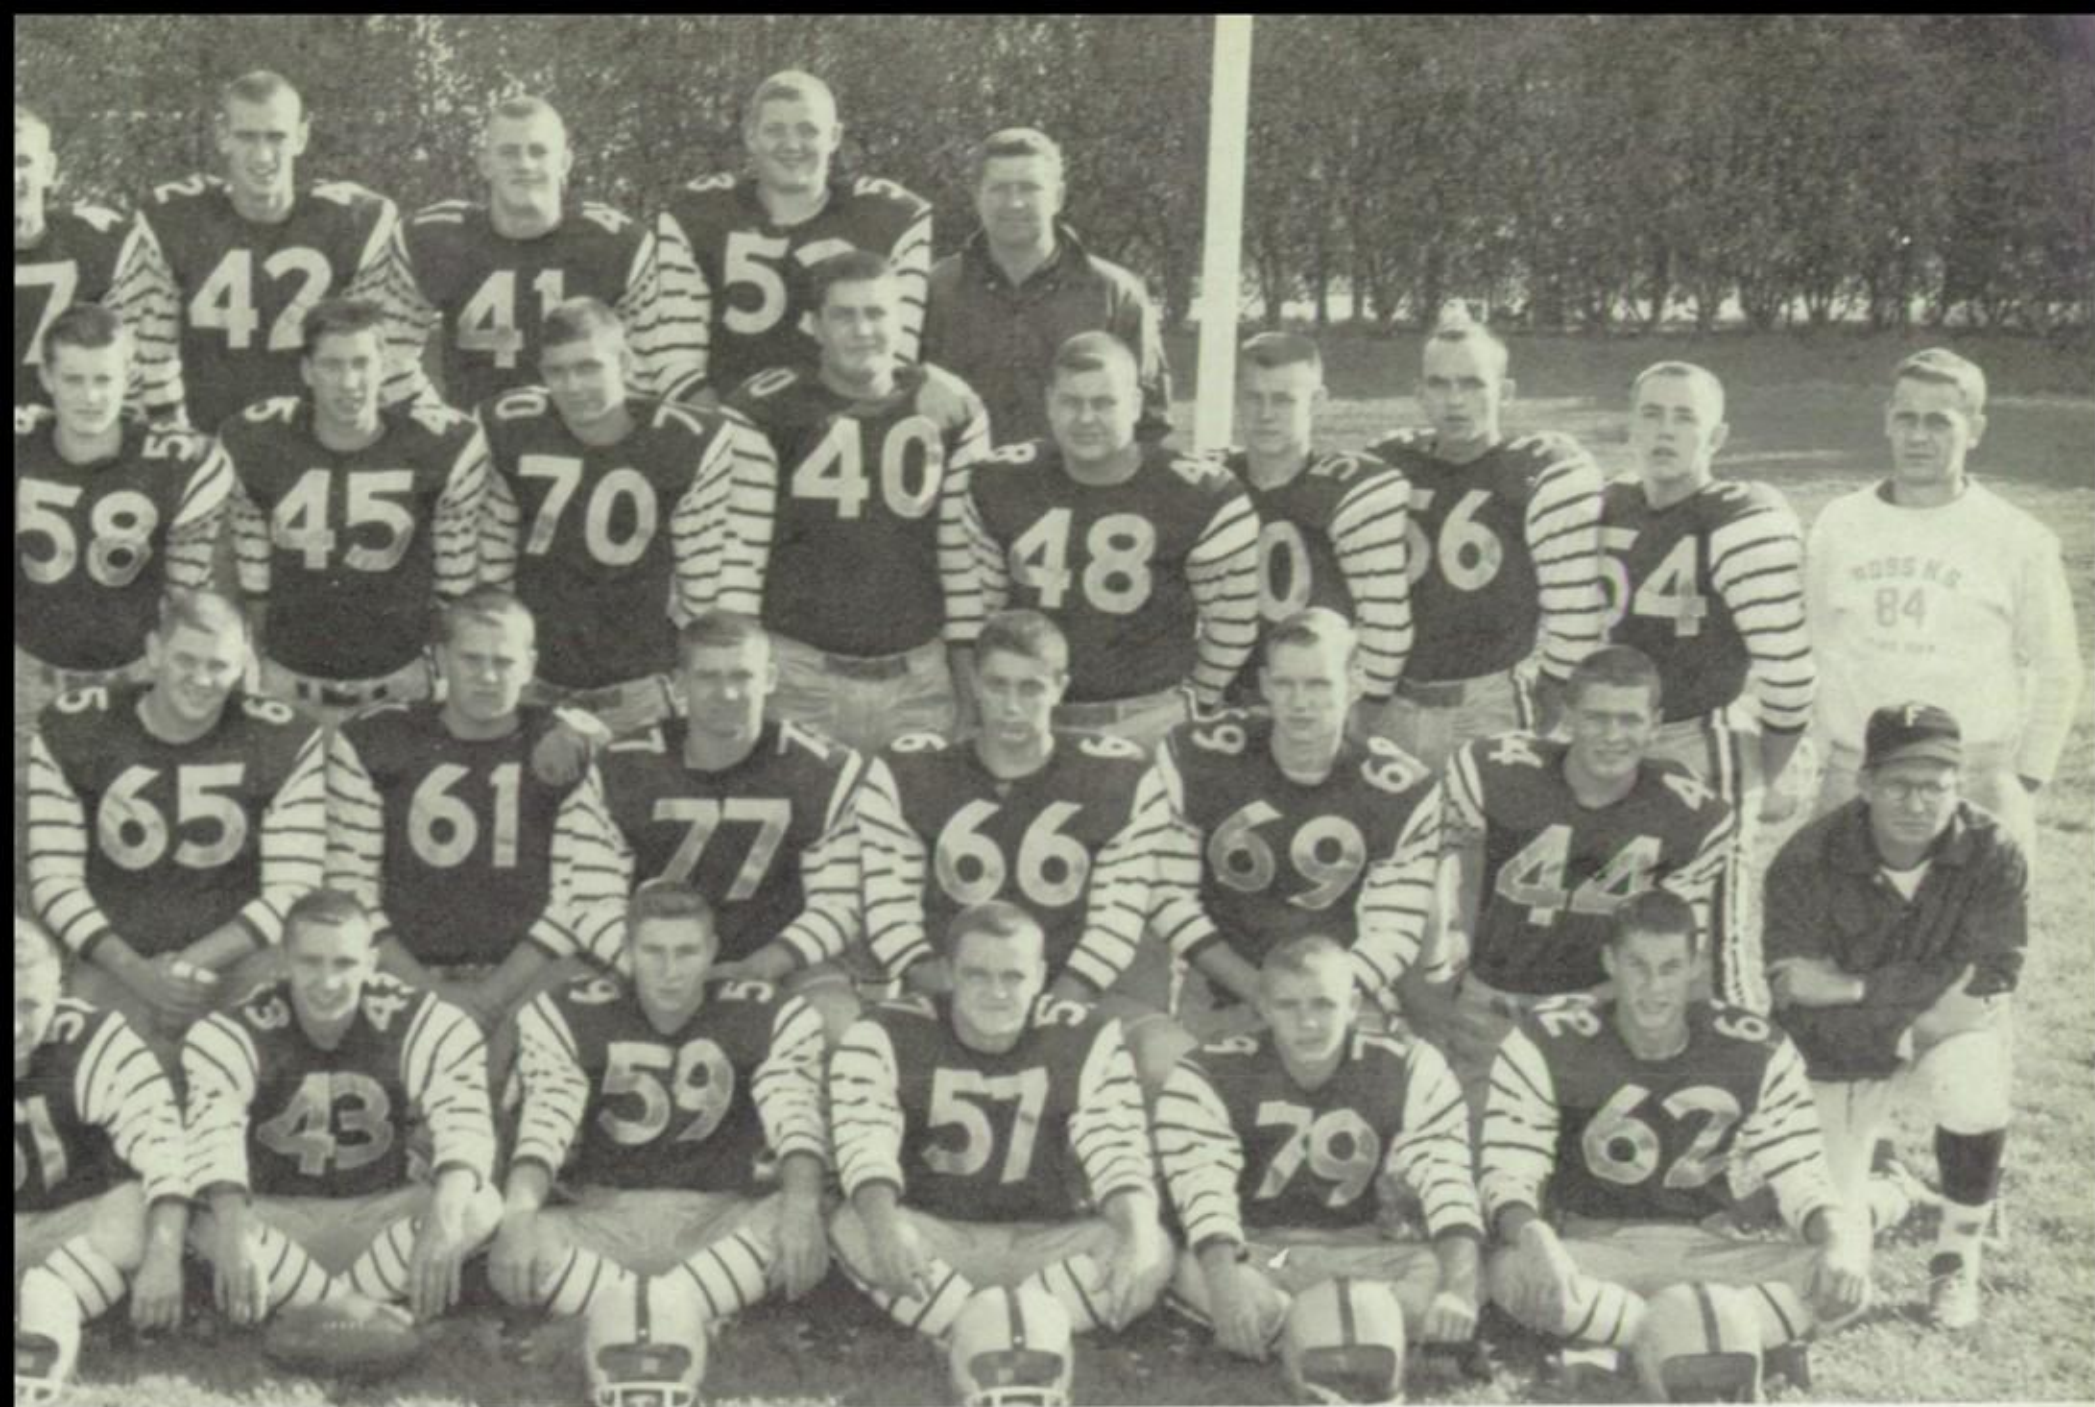

The Little Giants lost their second game of the season by less than one touchdown 24-20 on September 25 at Fremont.

First half Ross touchdowns were made by Gnepper and Stine, but were matched by Waite. In the second half Nighswander added six, but Gottfried got two TD's to put his team ahead to stay.

SANDUSKY

The traditional Fremont, Sandusky game went to Sandusky this year 34-24 on October 16 at the opponent's field.

Fremont made up for a dismal first half, which found the Blue Streaks ahead 26-8, by completely dominating the second half. Ross touchdowns were scored by Ohms, Both, and Gnepper with Stine adding six extra points.

Row Three: Coach Auble, Dan Moran, Dave Pankratz, Bill McCann, Dave Baylis, Jay Mackey, Gene Nitschke, Lloyd Both, Joe Brookmyer, Don Schell, Ken Smith, Dave Heppner, Bob Wax, Coach Raines.

Row Four: McKinley Glover, Jerry Brooks, Gary Beatty, Dennis Stine, Jim Ohms, Scott Decker, Coach Michaels.

FOOTBALL

ELYRIA

Defeat was followed by defeat as Elyria beat the Fremont team 28-16 at Fremont on October 23.

Denny Stine led the team with a sparkling display of passing ability. Both Fremont touchdowns were made on Stine to Gnepper pass plays.

LORAIN

Fremont suffered its fourth straight Buckeye Conference loss at the hands of Lorain 53-12 on October 30 at Lorain.

Although penalties hurt Ross, the Steelers had no trouble with all Ohio Ray Martin leading the touchdown parade. Only Purple and White scores were made by Both and Stine.

BEDFORD

The Fremont Ross Little Giants buried all their past defeats and gained their best victory in two seasons 36-8 on November 13 at Harmon Stadium.

Three of the Purple and White touchdowns were scored by Ohms and two by Both. The most spectacular play was 86 yard run from scrimmage by Ohms.

MARION

Ross was humiliated by Marion as they absorbed their seventh loss 76-6 on November 6 at Marion.

Fremont's only bright spot occurred in the third stanza when Lloyd Both scored after a long run by Gnepper. Pete Porietis of Marion scored eight touchdowns.

SCOTT

The end finally came to a dismal but hard fought season as Toledo nipped the Little Giants 12-8 at Harmon Field Stadium on November 20.

The lone eight points for Ross were scored by Denny Stine. The defeat gave Fremont a 2-8 mark for the season.
